Dear Sir:

Through a friend, I learned recently that you are a collector of Greek coins and I am wondering whether you know of our Society or have ever received an invitation to visit our museum or to become an associate member.

It would give me great pleasure to welcome you here and to show you our building at such time as might be convenient to you. If you should then care to qualify as an associate member it could readily be arranged.

I should be very glad to hear from you.

Very truly yours

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your courteous letter of the 29th, in which you allude to having been informed by a friend that I am a collector of Greek coins. There is a mistake in this, however, for I have never given any particular attention to such coins, although I have long been interested in ancient Greek literature.

Many thanks for your kind invitation to visit your museum. I am sure this would prove interesting, and after the summer vacation I shall be able to find a convenient time to do so.

With renewed thanks for your gracious letter, I am

Sincerely yours,

Roscoe Guernsey
